

November 8, 2009

Westchester people in the news

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS Award to honor Taube of Digiscribe

The Westchester County Association announced that Mitch Taube, CEO of Digiscribe, a document scanning and management company, will receive the APEX Award for Professionals and Entrepreneurs on Thursday at its fall leadership reception at the Atrium in White Plains. More than 600 members and guests are expected to attend the annual event. The association advocates for business and economic development. Learn more at www.westchester.org.